

Religiosity and Spirituality as a Need and Resource in Inclusion and Integration

Research by the Professorial Chair

- Succession Coaching
- Balancing Work and Family
- Spiritual Needs and Well-Being
- Professional Adaptability
- Theories of Social Pedagogy and Social Work
- Social Work as a Science
- Political and Social Discourses in Social Pedagogy and Social Work
- Socio-Pedagogical Coaching and Supervision
- Areas of Activity in Social Work

Projects

- Religiosity and Spirituality of Refugees
- Practice Network: Social Work and Social Pedagogy
- Inclusive Competences in Children: Spirituality as a Special Resource and its Relevance for Educational Practice
- INTAP: Integration Processes for Survivors of Human Trafficking
- Advisory Council for Inclusion and Pastoral Work for People with Disabilities in the Diocese of Eichstätt

Publications and Degree Theses

- >200 book articles
- >60 articles in scientific journals
- >15 self-published volumes
- 9 Bachelor theses
- 1 Master thesis
- 5 doctorates

Lectures, Teaching and Conferences

- Bavarian Riot Police Eichstätt
 - Among friends and helpers – when social work, refugees and police meet
- South Dakota State University; TH Ingolstadt and JMD City of Ingolstadt (inc. others)
 - Inclusion, integration and inclusive competences: religion and spirituality as a resource
- WG Christian Social Work (DBSH)
 - Can refugees find peace? Interdenominational approaches to social work
- General Meeting of the Diocesan Council
 - Inclusion as a human right and opportunity
- Specialist Unit Against Sexual Violence (WEIche)
 - Survivors of Human Trafficking as social work clients. Recommendations for practice

- B.A. Educational Sciences
 - Models of inclusion
 - Pedagogical child, youth and family research
 - Inclusion, integration and inclusive competences
- M.A. Flight and Migration
 - Fundamentals: flight and migration
 - Religiosity and spirituality as a need and resource
 - Living environments of refugees
 - Flight in adult education
- M.A. School social work
 - Aspects of inclusion and integration
 - Resources and mechanisms of inclusion
 - Inclusive competences and religious needs
- University Didactics
 - Learning through teaching according to Jean-Pol Martin
 - Human rights and conceptions of man
 - Laudato Si as basis for developing values at university

- Networks Migration and Flight Research
 - Psychosocial and religious spiritual attitudes of those who have fled: results of a self-conducted study
- “Long Night of Science“ at the CU Eichstätt
 - Spiritual needs and life satisfaction of refugees as a prerequisite for social stability.
- 10th Forum for Therapeutic and Religious Pedagogy in Siegburg
 - Poster session: inclusive competences – presentation of dissertation project.
- University of Wuppertal: International Conference on Inclusion
 - Poster session - inclusive competences in children: spirituality as a special resource and its relevance in educational practice.

Joint Project for Inclusive
Living and Learning at School

Sponsored by

Freisinger
Bischofs-konferenz