

Open vhb Course Programme “Inclusion and Participation“

Point of Departure

- Inclusion seen as developmental process for society as a whole
- Inclusion and participation are inextricably linked

Target Group

- Interested members of the general public
- People working in the social sector
- First-year students

Didactics

- Self-paced learning
- Case studies
- Different areas of specialization
- Self-monitoring of learning process
- Interviews and explanatory videos

The Conception of Man as an Anthropological Foundation

- Anthropology and human rights
- Ethics and human dignity
- Impetus for thought and reflection

Inclusion - an Explanation of Terminology

- Term of inclusion from the following perspectives:
- Education
 - Human rights
 - Sociology

Development of Inclusion in the Educational Sector

- Inclusion
- in different institutions of education
 - in daycare centers
 - in schools
 - in vocational training
 - at universities

Statutory and Political Dimensions of Inclusion

- International human rights conventions
- Political situation with respect to inclusion in Germany

Inclusion and Participation from the Outset

- Link between inclusion and participation
- Participation in all areas of life
- Changes on a structural and process level

Inclusion in Society

- Inclusion in the labor market
- Inclusion in housing – inclusion in social areas
- Social and cultural participation

Joint Project for Inclusive
Living and Learning at School

Sponsored by

Freisinger
Bischofs-konferenz